CrystoLux
Realistic Brilliance

The CrystoLux Quartz Series is crafted with high-purity cristobalite to achieve outstanding whiteness and enhanced resistance to yellowing. Its advanced mineral composition minimizes impurities, ensuring consistent color, uniform texture, and a smooth, refined surface finish.

Engineered for durability and long-term performance, CrystoLux maintains its clarity and elegance even in demanding environments. Ideal for modern residential and commercial applications, it delivers a perfect balance of strength, purity, and sophisticated design.

ICE MIRAGE

Pure Lasting Brilliance.

Elevate interiors with surfaces that capture the essence of refined luxury. Inspired by the natural movement of stone, each design brings depth, softness, and a seamless sense of continuity to modern spaces. The subtle veining and luminous finish create an atmosphere that feels both sophisticated and effortlessly inviting.

From statement kitchen islands to expansive countertops, these surfaces are crafted for lasting impact. Engineered for durability and timeless appeal, they offer the perfect balance between aesthetic beauty and everyday performance.

AZUL NUEVO

by ASMI

Inspired by the depth and movement of nature, Azul Nuevo captures the quiet strength of authentic stone. Its rich tonal variations and organic textures create a surface that feels grounded, elegant, and effortlessly timeless. Each slab tells a subtle story of natural formation, bringing character and individuality to every space.

Designed to make a confident yet calming statement, it enhances kitchens, feature walls, and living areas with understated luxury. Durable, versatile, and visually striking, Azul Nuevo offers the perfect harmony between raw beauty and refined design.
