THE WARM SHIFT

Cooler days. Warmer spaces.

Warm tones.
Natural movement.
Materials that feel like home.

AROUND HERE, SEPTEMBER CHANGES THE RHYTHM.

Cooler mornings. Earlier sunsets. Football weekends. Dinner starts happening around the kitchen again.

And somehow, the spaces we loved all summer start asking for something a little different.

Not a remodel.
Not a whole new color scheme.

Just a little more warmth.

This month, we're looking at the surfaces, colors, and combinations that are making homes feel softer, warmer, and more lived-in without losing the clean, modern look we love.

WELCOME TO THE WARM SHIFT

WHAT WE'RE SEEING

COLD IS OUT. CHARACTER IS IN.

For a while, kitchens were defined by crisp whites, cool grays, and perfectly polished finishes. Now, the mood is shifting warmer with creamy whites, soft beige, natural wood, and gentle movement in stone.

The focus is moving away from showroom perfection toward spaces that feel natural, layered, and lived-in, with warmth, tactile appeal, and plenty of character.

They feel good to live in.

INDEX

Thoughtful surfaces shape better spaces.

This September, we explore warmer palettes, smarter material choices, and the details that reveal a surface at its best.

From Quartz vs. Quartzite to Bonno Granite and the Essence Collection, this edition brings together material stories, design insights, and inspiration for more considered spaces.

01

The New Neutrals

Cream, Taupe, Oak and Aged Brass come together in a warmer September palette.

02

Beyond the Sample

Why a 4-inch sample can't tell the full story of movement, scale and personality.

03

Quartz or Quartzite

A simple guide to choosing the right surface for the way you want to design.

04

Slab of the Week

Bold movement, natural character . and a closer look at Bonno in real spaces.

05

Essence Collection

A refined porcelain surface inspired by natural slate. One surface, three distinct moods.

THE SEPTEMBER PALETTE

THE NEW NEUTRALS AREN'T REALLY NEUTRAL.

Cream+Taupe

Soft, warm neutrals that bring depth without feeling heavy.

Oak

Natural warmth that makes clean spaces feel more inviting.

Aged Brass

A subtle contrast that adds character and a refined finish.

- MIAMICA

Put them together and suddenly “neutral” doesn't feel boring at all.

THE SEPTEMBER PALETTE

A 4-INCH SAMPLE CAN'T TELL A 10-FOOT STORY.

WHAT YOU SEE IN A SAMPLE

Color. Texture.
A small piece of the pattern.

A small sample can show you color, but a full slab shows you movement, scale, veining, balance, and personality.

That's why a surface that looks quiet in your hand can completely change when you see the whole slab.

WHAT YOU SEE IN A SLAB

Movement. Scale.
Balance. Personality.

Quartz

Best when you're looking for:

Consistent pattern

Easy everyday care

Lots of design options

Predictability across the project

QUARTZ OR QUARTZITE

LET'S MAKE IT SIMPLE.

Quartzite

Best when you're looking for:

Natural movement

One-of-a-kind character

The beauty of natural stone

A surface nature won't repeat

BONNO

GRANITE

Bonno blends a sophisticated white-and-gray canvas with bold charcoal textures and organic movement, creating a surface with striking natural character.

Its polished finish makes it a refined choice for countertops and modern interiors.

SLAB OF THE WEEK

BONNO

NATURAL STONE

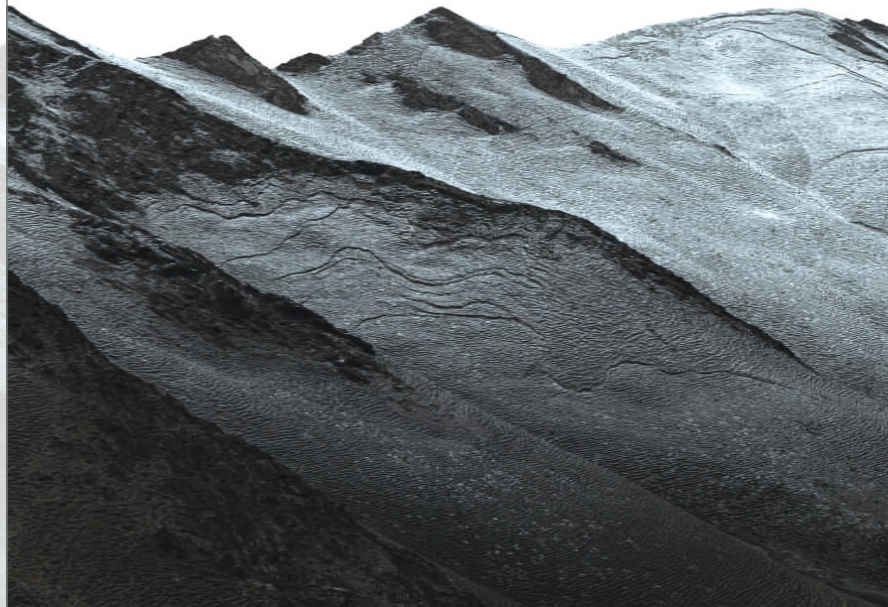

essence

COLLECTION BY LANDMARK

Essence reinterprets the layered beauty of natural slate through a refined porcelain surface, combining subtle texture with architectural depth.

A versatile collection designed to bring continuity, character, and quiet sophistication to both indoor and outdoor spaces.

ONE SURFACE. THREE MOODS.

20mm thickness porcelain pavers

MONTAUK WHITE

MONTAUK DARK

MONTAUK BLACK

Essence brings the quiet character of natural slate into three considered tones: Montauk White, Montauk Dark, and Montauk Black.

Use them individually for a clean, focused expression, or layer the tones together to create contrast, rhythm, and visual continuity across a space.
